A Testament To Freedom Dietrich Bonhoeffer

Bonhoeffer was a German Lutheran pastor and theologian who was shocked to watch the German church embrace Hitler's agenda of hatred. He spoke out against the Nazi party and led a breakaway church that rebelled against racist and militaristic policies. He risked his life by helping Jews escape the Holocaust and worked to create a network of Christian resistance in Germany. He was executed for his role in opposed the Nazi regime.

However, Bonhoeffer's legacy goes beyond his activism against fascism. His writings continue to inspire and challenge readers to live out their faith in the face of adversity and oppression. In "Life Together," Bonhoeffer described his experience of Christian community during the Nazi years, emphasizing the importance of互爱和牺牲 in building a life of faith and service. His ideas about the nature of the church and its role in society have been influential in shaping modern Christian thought.

Bonhoeffer's life and teachings remain relevant today, as we grapple with issues of justice, human rights, and the role of religion in public life. His commitment to living out one's faith in action and his willingness to speak truth to power continue to inspire Christians around the world.
Freedom from Sinful Thoughts - 1997 Sensitive and compassionate, yet always pragmatic, Freedom from Sinful Thoughts offers insights into a crucial universal struggle. Drawing on the words of Jesus, and on years of experience as a pastoral counselor, J. Heinrich Arnold guides the reader from the throes of frustration, guilt, and self-doubt to a life of single-minded freedom and joy.

Spiritual Care - Dietrich Bonhoeffer 1985 Bonhoeffer says spiritual care is a function of the congregation and that it is an aspect of the broader, more encompassing activity of proclamation. In Spiritual Care, we are confronted with the awesome truth that in speech God's presence is known and that speech is also our own; in silence God's presence is known and that silence is also our own. The text demands us to consider how the gospel message is brought to people in the midst of their personal lives, and his message and counsel use the tools given within the traditional life of the church so that each grace becomes enacted, enfleshed, and incarnate in the Christian community.
